

SNDT Arts and Commerce College for Women, Karve Road, Pune- 38

One day National seminar on “Hindi- Marathi Bhasha Aur Asmita ke Sawal “
'on 18th January 2016

The departments of Hindi and Marathi organized One day National seminar on “Hindi- Marathi Bhasha Aur Asmita ke Sawal “on 18th January 2016. Prof. Harish khanna, Associate Professor, Shamlal College University of Delhi, inaugurated the seminar and Dr. G.Y. Shitole, Principal, SNDT Arts and Commerce College for Women was the Chairperson. Prof. Manohar Jadhav, Dean, Savitribai Phule University Pune University and Dr. S.P. Badgajar, Registrar, SNDT Women’s University, Mumbai were present for the seminar.

On this occasion, Prof. Manohar Jadhav has expressed a broad attitude towards Hindi Marathi language. In his speech he said every language had its own beauty and its own strength. He also suggested that every language is strong and useful to communicate in its domain. Therefore, one ought to respect every language because language is the only medium to communicate and express our feelings and thoughts.

In the 1st session, the president was Dr. Nila Borvankar and the speaker was Dr. Dattatry Murumkar and Dr. Nilima Gundi. In this session Dr. Gundi described a historical aspect of the Marathi language. Her analytical approach towards Marathi language was very critical.

In the 2nd session of conference, the president was Dr. V.N. Bhalerao, Savitribai Phule Vishwa Vidyalay, Pune and Prof. Chandrakant Misal and Keshav Waghmare were main speakers. Mr. Waghmare explained how language is used in media. He also threw light on the flexibility of the language.

Prof. Rekha Inamdar- Sane was the chairperson of the last session of the conference. She talked about the purity of the Marathi Language and argued that recently the purity has completely vanished. Her thoughts were very genuine and provocative.

Dr. Madhavi Kulkarni, the vice Principal expressed her views on language. Mr. Asir Mulani expressed vote of thanks, Dr. Priya Jamkar, HOD of Marathi and Dr. Shivditta Wavalkar HOD of Hindi were in the organising committee.